Disclaimer: Membership details are held on computer by the Society but are used for administrative purposes only

As a new member of Devon Family History Society, you are invited to submit details of up to five family surnames. These will be published in the Devon Family Historian, together with your contact details. Other members who share your interests will then be able to get in touch with you, and hopefully, a contact of mutual advantage will result. As soon as you have received your new member's pack and membership number, you may register on the Members' Area of the website, enter more interests and check those submitted by other members.

I give permission for my contact details to be made available to other DFHS members who have similar interests YES (tick box)  NO (tick box)
