GENUKI® provides a free “virtual reference library” of genealogical information for the UK & Ireland. It is a non-commercial service, provided by an ever-growing band of volunteers. As of September 2008, GENUKI held 85,000 pages of information (indexes, transcriptions, details of what information is available where, etc.), occupying over 2500 Mbytes of space.

The above web address is of the GENUKI Home Page, which as well as providing the entry point for its large collection of genealogical information, also leads to guidance for first-time users, general tutorial information, details of genealogy mailing lists, answers to frequently asked questions, etc.

GENUKI is an charitable trust, whose trustees are: Malcolm Austen, Peter Christian, David Hawgood, Gareth Hicks, Colin Hinson, Rosemary Lockie, Brian Pears, Brian Randell, Phil Stringer and Richard White.

The Devon section of GENUKI is at <http://genuki.cs.ncl.ac.uk/DEV/> – this has almost 6000 pages, and sponsors – in conjunction with the Devon FHS – a very active electronic mailing list, DEVON-L, via which queries can be posed, and assistance sought.
