

PLYMOUTH HISTORY AND ARCHIVES DAY CONFERENCE

Saturday, 27th March 2010
Woolwell Community Centre,
Darklake Lane, Woolwell, Plymouth, PL6 7TR

Sponsored by Friends of Devon's Archives and Devon Family History Society.

- 9.30am Registration
- 10.00am Welcome and Opening of Conference.
- 10.15am "Archives are Fun" by Felicity Goodall, author of "Lost Plymouth", "Lost Devon", etc.
- 11.15am Coffee
- 11.45am "Mill Prison – A century of Captives and Captors", by Barbie Thompson.
- 12.45pm Buffet Lunch
- 2.00pm "Plymouth Then & Now" by Chris Robinson, local historian, author & broadcaster.
- 3.00pm Tea
- 3.30pm "No Place Field – the RN Memorial Garden" by Ian Criddle, Plymouth Local and Naval Studies Librarian
- 4.15pm Update on the campaign to save Plymouth's Archives.
- 4.30pm End of Conference.

The Devon FHS, Plymouth & West Devon Record Office and many local Societies will have stalls where you can browse.

FREE PARKING or the Community Centre is on the No 7 bus route from the City Centre.

To book a place at the Conference please send a cheque made payable to "Friends of Devon's Archives" to Peter Towey, 20 Skylark Rise, Plymouth, Devon, PL6 7SN.

Admission to include tea and coffee (bring your own lunch)	£8.00
Buffet Lunch (please indicate any dietary requirements)	£6.00

Name(s) cheque for £ enclosed for __ places __ lunches

Address.....

If you want a receipt and/or a map of how to get there please enclose a sae or your e-mail address.
Bookings for lunch must be received by 22nd March 2010.