

The Devon Family History Society
Cordially invites you to their Summer Special

on Saturday 12th June 2010

9.30am to 4.15pm

held at

Torquay Boys' Grammar School
Shiphay Manor Drive, Torquay TQ2 7DZ

'Those Crafty Devonians'
our disappearing traditions

9.30 am Assemble for coffee & biscuits

10.00 a.m – Welcome by Devon FHS Chairman - Maureen Selley, followed by Special Announcements

10.20 am Paul Rendell - 'Stone Men on the Moor'

How our ancestors cut and used granite

11.20 – [Ten minute break]

11.30 am Dr. Jo Cox - 'Devon Thatch & Thatchers'

A look at the skills and traditions of the Thatcher

12.30 – 2.30 - Lunch and Table/Stall visits

2.30 pm Carol McFadzean - 'Is Lace a Dying Art?'

The Legacy of Lacemakers in Devon

3.30 p.m Closing address by Devon FHS President – Dr. Todd Gray followed by Tea

4.15 Meeting closes

Amongst those attending:-

Booksellers, Displays, Postcards, Devon FHS publications,

Devon FHS Index print-out services

& The Devon Record Office

For further details e-mail: croulstone@talktalk.net

Cost of attendance £5.00 which includes coffee and biscuits. Please reserveplace[s]
Cost of Attendance & Picnic Lunch £10.00. Please reserve.....place[s]

Name:.....

Contact Address.....

.....

.....Postcode.....

Please return to arrive by 1st June to:

Mr M.K. Edwards, Alauna, 29 Lloyd Ave, Torquay, TQ2 7DH

I enclose a cheque for £.....made payable to Devon FHS

Please enclose an SAE or give your e.mail address for confirmation of your booking