

INTERVIEWING YOUR RELATIVES

Here is a long list of questions. Read and choose which ones to ask.

When you have chosen your questions you might like to write the questions down in your notebook leaving a space underneath each question for their answer.

- Where did you live when you were little?
- What sort of house or flat was it?
- Did you move home? If so what was it like?
- What did you do and play with when you were a child?
- Which stories/songs did you like best?
- What did you like about school?
- Have you ever won any prizes?
- Did you have any pets?
- When is your birthday?
- Do you remember any happy/funny/sad times?
- What were/are your favourite foods?
- What did you do at holiday time?
- When did you meet your partner?
- Have you any photos of when you got together/ got married?
- What jobs have you had?
- What would you have liked to work at, if you could have chosen anything?
- Do you remember any historic events happening in your lifetime?
- Did your grandparents live near you?
- Did they come to visit you or did you go to see them?
- What did your grandparents look like? Have you any photos?
- What special things did your grandparents have in their house?
